This year we celebrate our 31st staging of Charles Dickens’ A Christmas Carol. Once again, Hal Landon, Jr. plays Ebenezer Scrooge, and John-David Keller directs. SCR Founding Artists Richard Doyle and Art Koustik, who have reprised their roles virtually every season, are also back this year. The Christmas Carol cast has become a family. We gather each November to do our work. New folks are made kin by our veterans; the veterans are invigorated December (and our not complete) anew. But we’re plete until joined by our family; our audiences. A you have seen the show every year since 1980. Many of you first came with your parents and are now bringing your own children. SCR’s A Christmas Carol has endured because it brings families together. We are reminded to celebrate the season and to consider together Ebenezer Scrooge’s redemption. The value of love, life and family is heightened by the fact that they don’t last forever. It is the equation Scrooge comes to know, and one our family appreciates again each year.

Hal Landon Jr.
31 years: Actor (Scrooge)
“As the years have gone by, so many people have come up to me during the course of the year and told me how much the play means to them. The Christmas spirit is revived in them every year, and people who were children when they first saw it now bring their children.”

John-David Keller
31 years: Director and Actor (Mr. Fezziwig)
“Many of my favorite memories revolve around the children in the cast. I always insist that they not have their own dressing room but share with the adults, so they can really experience what it is like to be part of a production. Of course, the children are given instruction in rules of behavior that the adults are not. I remember one time asking a father about how his child was enjoying being a part of the show, and the father replied, ‘He’s having the time of his life, and his vocabulary has become quite colorful.’”

Daniel Blinkoff
8 years: Actor (Bob Cratchit)
“A few years ago, on Christmas Eve, our last show for that year, I was waiting backstage for the scene where we glimpse into Tiny Tim’s future. I feel a tug on my sleeve, and it's Tiny Tim. This was a kid with a lot of initial anxiety about performing, but through the course of the production he really fell in love with the show and became a real actor. He says to me, 'Don't go on.' I ask him why, and he says, 'If you go on, that means it will all be over soon.'"

Hisa Takakuwa
14 years: Actor (Sally/Toy Lady/Scavenger), 5 years: Assistant Director

"Of all the shows in which I have ever performed, A Christmas Carol is special and intimate in its interface between the audience and the actors. As an actor in the show, and now as an audience member, I have become truly aware of the emotional flow between the audience and cast that occurs each night. It really exemplifies the best of the live theatre experience."

Reminiscing with Jerry Patch

A chat with SCR's A Christmas Carol adaptor, Jerry Patch

What is your favorite memory of SCR’s *A Christmas Carol?
I remember getting up at 4:30 a.m. in Huntington Beach during the summer of 1980 to write the adaptation SCR first presented that Christmas. The sun was up early, blazing across my desk, while I tried to put myself in London in December. It wasn’t that hard—Dickens overpowered life at the beach almost every morning.

How has SCR’s A Christmas Carol changed for you over the years?
That first production in 1980 had SCR’s young company actors playing roles considerably older than they were. One of the gifts of A Christmas Carol has been watching those actors return annually with deeper, more authentic portrayals of characters they’ve come to know very well. To have Hal Landon as Scrooge and John-David Keller directing for 31 years (31 years!) is truly a treasure, and could only be possible in a theatre like SCR.

Why do you think the story of A Christmas Carol has endured?
Most writers never manage to create an archetypal role. Charles Dickens created a number of them, and Ebenezer Scrooge is probably the most widely known. Dickens’ account of his redemption is an annual reminder that while we’re alive we still have the capacity to serve others, to reach for greater humanity, and that as Scrooge comes to know, to do so is a privilege.

There are so many examples of adaptations and variations on the original Dickens story as part of our cultural holiday tradition. To you, what makes SCR’s adaptation unique?
I think SCR’s decision to create a production set in London but not specifically British or realistic has given the show a universal quality that speaks to our Southern California audiences. The resultant theatricality of the production makes it immediate, accessible and communal for our audiences in ways that some of the very good film versions, which rely on specificity and realistic detail, can’t really do as well. At the play’s end, our audiences are as much a part of Fred’s Christmas party as the actors onstage.
n the late fall of 1843, the 31-year-old author of Oliver Twist and Nicholas Nickleby began writing a story to be published during the Christmas season. With four children and a wife to provide for, flagging sales and decreasing interest in his latest work, Charles Dickens was in need of a career jump start.

Moved to action by a Parliamentary report on the plight of child laborers, Dickens visited a copper mine. Appalled by what he saw, Dickens began to develop ideas for his next story—a story that would, in the author's words, “strike a blow on behalf of the poor man's child.” He titled the piece The Sledgehammer, over 150 years later, it's the story known all over the world as A Christmas Carol.

Success of A Christmas Carol

Written in just six weeks, Dickens told friends that the Cratchits were “ever tugging at his coat sleeve, as if impatient for him to get back to his desk and continue the story of their lives.” Dickens could hardly have imagined that the story would become beloved by so many.

In 1857, A Christmas Carol became the first of Dickens’ works that he performed publically. The Manchester Examiner reported that “there is always a freshness about what Mr. Dickens does—one reading is never anything like a mechanical following of a previous reading.” In 1867 and 1868, Dickens put on a blockbuster A Christmas Carol tour of the United States, turning a profit of $140,000—nearly two million dollars today. President Andrew Jackson took his family to every performance in Washington D.C., overnight in the streets to purchase tickets. A Christmas Carol has been translated for readers all over the world and adapted into dozens of stage productions, films and even an opera. Though he could not have anticipated how successful his novella would prove to be, Dickens would surely be happy that his story of the virtues of goodwill and generosity continues to reach millions of people every year.

About Dickens

Charles Huffman Dickens was born in Landport (now part of Portsmouth), England, on February 7, 1812. In 1824, he was given his first position in business in the employ of Warren’s Blacking Factory, Chatham. For six months, the young Dickens adhered labels to containers of blacking, and perhaps unknowingly, collected material for what would become world-famous portrayals of Victorian England’s working class. By the mid 1860s, Dickens had achieved widespread fame with the publications of The Pickwick Papers, Oliver Twist and The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby.

A Christmas Carol, like many of Dickens’ other works, has autobiographical elements woven throughout. Like Peter Cratchit, Dickens was the eldest of six children. His own frail, sickly brother was often called “Tiny Fred.” Dickens' spendthrift father, John, caused the family, save 12-year-old Charles, to relocate to a debtor's prison for a time. Charles worked in a factory during this time, and never forgot the experience.

The Illustrated London News depicted Dickens giving his last public reading of A Christmas Carol in March 1870.

The art of woodcutting was originally developed in China as a means of creating an illustration on paper from the carving of a block of wood that was then inked and stamped on paper. The technique was mastered by the prolific woodcutter John Leech, whose woodcuttings were used as illustrations in the original publication of A Christmas Carol in 1843 (pictured below). Leech and other popular woodcutters at the time, such as William Hogarth, used their woodcuttings to echo the themes of poverty, redemption and goodwill in Victorian England. The scenic design of SCR's A Christmas Carol was inspired by the woodcuttings and the way they portrayed the glimmers of light and hope during the darkness of Victorian England. But don’t take our word for it; see for yourself!

Christmas Woodcuttings

Imagining yourself in London in Charles Dickens’ time. Nearly two million Londoners, rich and poor alike, spill into the city streets among the manure left by thousands of horse-drawn carriages. Smoke swarms out of chimney pots and soot coats all that it falls upon. In parts of the city, raw sewage pours from the gutters into the Thames—the main water supply. A common laborer’s average weekly wage was 3 shillings, nine pence—that’s approximately $14 modern U.S. dollars. A loaf of bread cost about 2 pence (65¢ in modern USD) and rent for the year cost about 25 pounds (about $1,900 modern USD). However, this was a luckier existence than the very destitute who would receive aid in the form of employment in a workhouse.

Dickens made sure the voices of the unfortunate were heard in his work, along with huge doses of good humor and myriad evocations of the joys of home and hearth. He continues to do the same for us today. In all of his stories, we remember there are those less fortunate than ourselves. We remember that there are those willing to change. Most importantly, we remember that there is hope.

Games for a Victorian Christmas

FORFEITS

To play, the guests choose a “Constable,” the British term for a police officer, who then must exit the room. Once the Constable is out of earshot each player “forfeits” an article, be it a pen, broach, bracelet, etc., into a pile. The Constable enters the room blindfolded and unaware of what object each player has deposited into the pile. The object of the game is for the Constable to match the article to the person by only feeling the object. If the Constable is correct the owner must obey an order of the Constable, something silly like doing a dance or reciting a funny phrase, to have their item returned to them. If the Constable incorrectly matches the article to the owner, the owner of the object gives the Constable something silly to do. This continues until all of the items in the pile have been given back. The Constable wins if he or she can match the owner with article more times correctly than incorrectly. At the end the Constable chooses a replacement and the game starts all over.

DICTIONARY

This Parlour Game is not only good for Christmas, but for any occasion. The guests all receive a piece of paper and a pen and sit around a table. This game requires a dictionary from which each party guest picks a word. Each member must write a word, preferably one that is unknown to the other guests, and write it down on a piece of paper. The person who can correctly identify the most correct definitions wins.

Example: Humbug

A. Something said during Christmastime to welcome someone to a Holiday Party.
B. A person or thing that tricks or deceives.
C. A singing bug.
D. Someone who gives to charities.

Richard Doyle

Solicitor/Spirit of Christmas Past/Gentleman is an SCR Founding Artist who has appeared in nearly 200 productions, playing hundreds of characters. He appeared most recently in Misalliance, Ben and the Magic Paintbrush, You, Nero (and in the Berkeley Repertory production), An Italian Straw Hat: A Vaudeville and The Importance of Being Earnest. He also appeared in Intimate Exchanges (2004), for which he earned a Los Angeles Drama Critics Circle (LADCC) Award nomination. He won an LADCC Award for his role in Sally Nemeth’s Holy Days and was nominated for his role as Reverend Hale in The Crucible. He was a guest artist at Pasadena Playhouse in the world premiere of Matter of Honor playing Gen. John M. Schofield. Mr. Doyle makes many film and television appearances and is an active voice-over actor in animation, CD-ROM games and Motion Capture. He is currently the holographic host at the Union Theater at the Lincoln Library in Springfield, IL. Mr. Doyle is a recipient of The Helena Modjeska Cultural Legacy Award. He would like to wish SCR theatergoers happy holidays!

Karen Hensel

Solicitor/Mrs. Fezziwig

has been associated with SCR since her debut in Spokesong in 1979. Her performances at SCR have included The Heiress, Cold Sweat, Hotel Paradiso, Bosoms and Neglect, Unsuitable for Adults and Frankie and Johnny in the Clair de Lune, a production that was also presented at the Singapore Theatre Festival. She also appeared in Cloud Nine, Our Country’s Good, Hay Fever and, memorably, Caryl Churchill’s Top Girls, which was also presented by SCR at the Westwood Playhouse and for which she was awarded the Los Angeles Drama Critics Circle Award. She has performed at Mark Taper Forum, Pasadena Playhouse and American Conservatory Theater in San Francisco. A member of the Broadway cast of Zoot Suit, she might be remembered by television viewers as Doris on “The Young and the Restless” (15 years), or for her many guest spots on nighttime dramas. She is currently the Director of Adult Acting Classes and Professional Actor Training at SCR.

John-David Keller

is a member of SCR’s resident acting company. He has been with the company since 1973 working as both an actor and director. He has directed A Christmas Carol for its entire 30-year history. He also directed SCR’s Educational Touring Productions for 32 years. Among his other SCR directing credits are Godspell, Jacques Brel Is Alive and Well and Living in Paris, In Fashion, The Real Inspector Hound (SCR’s first Equity show), Peg O’My Heart and Tomfoolery. He has also acted in over 100 productions at SCR. Most recently he directed If You Give a Mouse a Cookie for the Lewis Theatre and is a recipient of a senior artist grant from the The Kenneth A. Picerne Foundation. Mr. Keller is the concert host for the Orange County Philharmonic Society’s fifth grade concerts. He is a member of Actors’ Equity and SDC.

JaMie a. Tucker (Stage Manager) completed his MFA in Dance, specializing in Stage Management, at UC Irvine in 1994. Since coming to SCR, Mr. Tucker has stage managed or assisted on more than 45 shows, including seven seasons of La Posada Mágica and now his third season at the helm of A Christmas Carol. Some of his favorites have been the world premieres of Richard Greenberg’s Three Days of Rain, The Violet Hour and The Dazzle; Rolin Jones’ The Intelligent Design of Jenny Chow; and Noah Haidle’s Mr. Marmalade. Other favorites include Crimes of the Heart, Fences, Anna in the Tropics, A View from the Bridge and Hamlet. If you can’t find him in the theatre, he is likely to be riding his bike down PCH. Mr. Tucker is a proud member of Actors’ Equity.

Chrissy Church (Assistant Stage Manager) is in the midst of an adventurous tenth season at SCR. This season’s travels have thus far taken her from 1909 England for George Bernard Shaw’s Misalliance, to the present day East Coast for Gina Gionfriddo’s Becky Shaw; and now to Victorian London for her 7th journey with A Christmas Carol. As always she would like to thank the talented and dedicated crew of A Christmas Carol, without whom this show would not be possible. Previous SCR credits include last season’s Crimes of the Heart, The Language Archive, Fences, A Christmas Carol, Saturn Returns and Putting It Together; and previously the world premieres of Our Mother’s Brief Affair, What They Have, My Wandering Boy, Hitchcock Blonde, Mr. Marmalade and Getting Frankie Married—and Afterwards, Making It and Nostalgia; productions of Collected Stories, Noises Off, The Heiress, Taking Steps, Charlotte’s Web, Doubt, a parable, The Real Thing, Born Yesterday, Pinocchio, The Little Prince, Intimate Exchanges, La Posada Mágica, Anna in the Tropics, Proof and the Pacific Playwrights Festival workshop of Tough Titty.

George and Julianne Argyros (Honorary Producers) have been major supporters of South Coast Repertory since the theatre’s early days. The couple’s generous support of the Next Stage Campaign named the Julianne Argyros Stage. They have also made a significant gift to the current Legacy Campaign, to build the endowment that ensures the future of SCR. This strong support is indicative of their commitment to South Coast Repertory and the arts in Orange County. “SCR has brought exceptional theatre to our community through its productions, and with each passing season the theatre’s work has broadened and gained relevance,” Julianne said. “I grew up aware of the wonderful role theatre can play in a child’s life and believe it’s important that we never lose that sense of magic.” The Argyros family keeps the magic alive as Honorary Producers of A Christmas Carol. David Emmes (Producing Artistic Director) is co-founder of SCR. He has received numerous awards for productions he has directed during his SCR career, including a Los Angeles Drama Critics Circle Award for the direction... of George Bernard Shaw’s The Philanderer. He directed the world premieres of Amy Freed’s Safe in Hell, The Beard of Avon and Freedomland, Thomas Babe’s Great Day in the Morning, Keith Reddin’s Run and Coke and But Not for Me and Neal Bell’s Cold Sweat; the American premieres of Terry Johnson’s Unsuitable for Adults and Joe Penhall’s Dumb Show; the West Coast premieres of C.P. Taylor’s Good and Harry Horndeleon’s Christmas on Mars; and the Southland premiere of Top Girls (at SCR and the Westwood Playhouse). Other productions include the West Coast premieres of The Secret Rapture by David Hare and New England by Richard Nelson as well as Arcadia by Tom Stoppard, The Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde, Ayckbourn’s Woman in Mind and You Never Can Tell by George Bernard Shaw, which he restaged for the Singapore Festival of Arts. After attending Orange Coast College, he received his BA and MA from San Francisco State University; and his PhD in theatre and film from USC.

Martin Benson (Artistic Director), co-founder of SCR, has directed nearly one-fourth of the plays produced here. In May 2008, he and David Emmes received the Margo Jones Award for their lifetime commitment to theatre excellence and to fostering the art and craft of American playwriting. Along with Emmes, he accepted SCR’s 1988 Tony Award for Outstanding Resident Professional Theatre and won the 1995 Theatre LA Ovation Award for Lifetime Achievement. Mr. Benson has received the Los Angeles Drama Critics Circle Award for Distinguished Achievement in Directing an unparalleled seven times for George Bernard Shaw’s Major Barbara, Misalliance and Heartbreak House; John Millington Synge’s Playboy of the Western World; Arthur Miller’s The Crucible; Sally Nemeth’s Holy Days; and Margaret Edson’s Pulitzer Prize-winning Wit, which he also directed at Seattle Repertory Theatre and the Alley Theatre in Houston. He has directed American classics including Ab, Wilderness!, A Streetcar Named Desire and A View from the Bridge. He has distinguished himself in the staging of contemporary work, including the world premiere of Horton Foote’s Getting Frankie Married — and Afterwards and the critically acclaimed California premiere of Nicholson’s Shadowlands. Benson received his BA in Theatre from San Francisco State University.

Paula Tomei (Managing Director) is responsible for the overall administration of South Coast Repertory and has been Managing Director since 1994. A member of the SCR staff since 1979, she has served in a number of administrative capacities, including Subscriptions Manager, Business Manager and General Manager. She served on the board of Theatre Communications Group (TCG), the national service organization for theatre, from 1998-2006, and was its President for four years. She has also served as Treasurer of TCG, Vice President of the League of Resident Theatres (LORT) and has been a member of the LORT Negotiating Committee for industry-wide union agreements. In addition, she represents SCR at national conferences of TCG and LORT, is a theatre panelist for the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) and the California Arts Council, and site visitor for the NEA; served on the Advisory Committee for the Arts Administration Certificate Program at UC Irvine; and has been a guest lecturer in the graduate school of business at Stanford and UC Irvine. She is on the board of Arts Orange County, the county wide arts council, and the board of the Nicholas Endowment. Ms. Tomei graduated from UC Irvine with a degree in Economics and pursued an additional course of study in theatre and dance. She also teaches a graduate class in nonprofit management at UC Irvine.

South Coast Repertory, founded in 1964 and continuing today under the leadership of Artistic Directors David Emmes and Martin Benson, is widely regarded as one of America’s foremost producers of new plays. In its three-stage Folino Theatre Center, SCR produces a five-play season on its Segerstrom Stage, a four-play season on its Argyros Stage, plus an annual holiday production. SCR also offers a three-play Theatre for Young Audiences series, and year-round programs in education and outreach. SCR’s extensive new play development program consists of commissions, residencies, readings and workshops. Among the plays commissioned and introduced at SCR are Donald Margulies’ Sight Unseen and Brooklyn Boy; Richard Greenberg’s Three Days of Rain and The Violet Hour; David Henry Hwang’s Golden Child, Jose Rivera’s References to Salvador Dali Make Me Hot; Lynn Nottage’s Intimate Apparel, Craig Lucas’ Prelude to a Kiss, Amy Freed’s The Beard of Avon, Margaret Edson’s Pulitzer Prize-winning Wit and David Lindsay-Abaire’s Pulitzer Prize-winning Rabbit Hole. Most of these plays were developed through its Pacific Playwrights Festival, an annual workshop and reading showcase. More than forty percent of the plays SCR has produced have been world, American or West Coast premieres. In 1988, SCR received the Regional Theatre Tony Award for Distinguished Achievement.

The Actors and Stage Managers employed in this production are members of Actors’ Equity Association, the Union of Professional Actors and Stage Managers in the United States.

The Scenic, Costume, Lighting and Sound Designers in LORT theatres are represented by United Scenic Artists Local USA-829, IATSE.

The Director is a member of the Stage Directors and Choreographers Society, a national theatrical labor union.
is thrilled to be making his SCR debut! He recently completed SCR’s Professional Acting Training program and was a part of SCR’s Young Theatre Conservatory for more than seven years, where he appeared in such productions as Metamorphoses, Peter Pan and Hard Times. He is currently pursuing a BFA Theatre Performance degree from Chapman University and recently appeared in their production of Hedda Gabler. He would like to thank his family and friends for their continuous love and support.

After graduating from SCR’s Professional Intensive Program in 2010, Mr. Nestor is pleased to take his first step onto SCR’s stage. He recently played Albert Soady Jr. at The Little Fish Theatre in the production of Escanaba in Love. He would like to thank the entire SCR community for all of their hard work and effort. He hopes this year’s production is a great TOPPER to your holiday...
