2018 PPF Playwrights Panel:
What Does It Mean to Be a Playwright in America Today?

Join us for a conversation with the 2018 festival playwrights, moderated by Skyler Gray, Victory Gardens Theater’s director of new play development. During the panel, Gray and the writers will discuss what it means to be a playwright in America today. As writers, do they feel the need to respond to the ever-changing political landscape? Why or why not? Do they feel a responsibility to tell certain stories in this time?

Sunday, April 22, at 9am
on the Julianne Argyros Stage

Please feel free to grab a lid and bring your coffee into the theatre with you; however we ask that you enjoy your breakfast before or after the event.
