Segerstrom Stage Season Media Partner

THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER Media Partner
This year’s revival of Charles Dickens’ A Christmas Carol is SCR’s 29th staging of the play. With each renewal it has become more of a tradition both for this theatre and for Orange County. And, as with any tradition, it changes and it stays the same.

Since we began, Hal Landon Jr. has played Ebenezer Scrooge, and John-David Keller has been our director. SCR founding members Richard Doyle and Art Koustik have reprised their parts in virtually every season.

Daniel Blinkoff, a remarkably versatile actor who has performed on SCR stages for many a season, is now in his sixth year as the lovable Bob Crachit. John Ellington, who played Crachit for nearly 20 years, is now the Rev. Dr. John Ellington, pastor of Community Congregational Church in Los Alamitos. David Whalen replaced Ellington for several seasons, returned east with his family and took up the role of Bob at Hartford Stage Company.

Noreen Hennessey, Marilyn Fox, and Devon Raymond all spent years in their turns as Mrs. Cratchit. This year Jennifer Parsons, a long-term member of SCR’s creative family, returns for her fifth run in the role.

New to the cast this season is Louis Lotorto in the role of Fred. Tom Shelton and Karen Hensel return for their second year as Marley and Mrs. Fezziwig. The children change every year, but they always come from SCR’s Young Conservatory program, which supplies important new generations to our ever-evolving family.

Cliff Faulkner’s original set design has been rejuvenated annually, this year by Tom Buderwitz, but the essential spirit of it remains. Original costumer Dwight Odle oversees the redesigning or enhancement of the period clothing each year. Tom and Donna Ruzika, who did the lighting design for the first production, are doing the 29th. Our senior technician, Jon Lagerquist, has provided technical direction since 1985.

And though the sound design has changed, elements of the first one, a glorious collection of music of the season beautifully woven though the production by Stephen Shaffer, remain. Last season, award-winning composer Dennis McCarthy gave the beloved tunes a fresh polish.

While so many of the original contributors and elements have stayed, the show has advanced from our first 1980 production into a genuine treasure. The artists involved and their performances have grown as they built distinguished careers in the theatre. Each year they search for a better way, a search enriched by years of craft and invention. It’s a great story we’re telling, one we don’t take lightly.
We’ve been a family. We’ve added and subtracted from our core — like any family — for 29 years. We gather annually in November to do our work — better than we’ve ever done it, we hope. New folks are made kin by our veterans; the veterans are invigorated by the newcomers. By December we’ve recreated our clan (and our show) anew.

But we’re not complete until joined by our greater family: our audiences. There are a few people who have seen the show every year since 1980. And second-and third-generation offspring of those first audiences have now taken up the tradition. SCR’s A Christmas Carol has endured here because it brings families together. We are reminded to celebrate the season and to consider together Ebenezer Scrooge’s redemption, and how, to some degree, each year it should be our own.

Human mortality pervades A Christmas Carol. The deaths of Marley and Fan, the Ghosts, and the possible passing of Tiny Tim further darken the suffering of the poor and the Cratchits’ lean Christmas. These are the shadows to be dispelled by the light of love and the season’s spirit in Dickens’ classic.

The value of love, life and family is heightened by the fact that they don’t last forever. It is the equation Scrooge comes to know, and one our family appreciates again each year.

Other Dickens Christmas stories:

- The Chimes
- The Cricket on the Hearth
- The Battel of Life
- The Haunted Man

A Christmas Carol was a bestseller when it was published in 1843, and it created an insatiable demand in the public for more Christmas stories. Dickens obliged by writing one Christmas novella a year for four years, they were:

- The Chimes
- The Cricket on the Hearth
- The Battle of Life
- The Haunted Man

The Last of the Mythologists

Charles Dickens Writes A Christmas Carol

BY KRISTIN FROBERG

In the late fall of 1843, the 31-year-old author of Oliver Twist and The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby began writing a story to be published during the Christmas season of that year. With four children and a wife to provide for, flagging sales and decreasing interest in his latest work, Charles Dickens was in need of a career jump-start.

At this time, some privileged English families still celebrated Christmas with feasts, pageants, and revelry. But England’s working class — about eighty-five percent of the population — could not. For many people in Dickens’ London, December was a time of hardship, not celebration.

In October of 1843, moved to action by a Parliamentary report on the plight of children laboring in mines and factories, Dickens visited a copper mine. Appalled by what he saw there, Dickens began to develop ideas for his next story — a story that would, in the author’s words, “strike a sledge-hammer blow on behalf of the poor man’s child.” He titled the piece The Sledgehammer; over 150 years later, it’s the story known all over the world as A Christmas Carol.

Dickens wrote A Christmas Carol in just six weeks. He told friends that the Cratchits were “ever tugging at his coat sleeve, as if impatient for him to get back to his desk and continue the story of their lives.” A Christmas Carol, like many of Dickens’ other works, has autobiographical elements woven throughout. Like Peter Cratchit, Dickens was the eldest of six children. His own frail, sickly youngest brother was often called “Tiny Fred.” Dickens’ spendthrift father John caused the family, save 12-year-old Charles, to relocate to debtor’s prison for a time. Charles worked in a factory during this time, and never forgot the experience.

Though he must certainly have hoped for career rejuvenation, Dickens could hardly have imagined that the story would be so beloved by so many. In 1857, A Christmas Carol became the first of Dickens’ works that he performed publicly, and was, in 1868, the last. He preferred to act the story for the audience, adapting his presentation as he went along. The Manchester Examiner reported that “There is always a freshness about what Mr. Dickens does — one reading is never anything like a mechanical following of a previous reading.”

In 1867 and 1868, Dickens put on a blockbuster Christmas Carol tour of the United States, turning a profit of $140,000 — nearly two million dollars today. President Andrew Jackson took his family to every performance in Washington D.C., and theatre-goers camped overnight in the streets to purchase tickets the next morning.

A Christmas Carol has been translated for readers all over the world and adapted into dozens of stage productions, films, and even an opera. Though he could not have anticipated, during that fall of 1843, how successful his novella would prove to be, Dickens would surely be very happy that his story of the virtues of goodwill and generosity continues to reach millions of people every year.

“Dickens was a mythologist rather than a novelist; he was the last of the mythologists, and perhaps the greatest.”
— G.K. Chesterton

Prime Minister Lord Melbourne (1779-1848) did not care for Charles Dickens (1812-1870). By the mid 1800s, Dickens had achieved widespread fame with the publications of The Pickwick Papers, Oliver Twist and The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby. Lord Melbourne advised Queen Victoria against reading the work of Her Majesty’s famous subject, due to the fact that Dickens’ books were full of “unpleasant subjects” such as prostitutes, pickpockets, murderers and houses of ill repute. Dickens’ vivid London was a place from which the good Prime Minister wished to shield his Queen.

Imagine yourself in London in Charles Dickens’ time. Nearly two million Londoners, rich and poor alike, spill into the city streets among the manure left by literally thousands of horse-drawn carriages. Smoke swarms out of chimney pots and soot coats all that it falls upon. In parts of the city, raw sewage pours from the gutters into the Thames — your main water supply. If you were a common laborer, your average weekly wage was 3 shillings, 9 pence — that’s approximately four dollars. With a loaf of bread costing about 2 pence a day and rent for the year costing 25 pounds (about $47 USD), you are still extraordinarily poor, however, this was a luckier existence than the very destitute who would receive aid in the form of employment in a workhouse.

From this dank and vile reality came countless Romantic literary offerings, including Dickens’ A Christmas Carol. His account of mean old Ebenezer Scrooge changing his ways became essential reading during Christmas time in London, and indeed, throughout the world. Romanticism revolted against aristocratic, social, and political norms, stressing in their place the awe experienced in nature. Dickens’ work denounced the moving forward of industry and lauded those unfortunate souls who fell victims to it. Those ‘unpleasant subjects’ that Prime Minister Melbourne was so quick to cover up became the heroes of Dickens’ stories.

Melbourne’s efforts were successful, at least to a point. At first the Queen turned a seemingly blind eye to the rampant pollution, severe sanitation problems and insurmountable poverty that plagued her urban subjects. Tuberculosis, typhoid fever, and finally, the dreaded cholera epidemic would rage the streets of the destitute and the opulent alike. Although Queen Victoria would continue to have her sights set on trade and commerce and Lord Melbourne would resign his duties twice, the workers of London attempted to solve the greatest issue of their day. Toward the end of the 1850s English engineers finally brought forth a water filtering system that would end the cholera epidemic. Although the extreme indigence of London’s common man would continue for years, even after Queen Victoria’s death, the age would be remembered as a time of progress.

The Victorian Age was in many ways a time of profound sadness and deprivation for ordinary people. But it was also a time of discovery and expectation. It was a time that infuriated and inspired its people. While royalty guarded trade agreements and sought to expand their empires, everyday Londoners were searching for everyday chances and small kindnesses. That was Charles Dickens’ London.

Dickens made sure the voices of the unfortunate were heard in his work, along with huge doses of good humor and myriad evocations of the joys of home and hearth. He continues to do the same for us today. In all of his stories, we remember that there are those less fortunate than ourselves. We remember that there are those willing to change. Most importantly, we remember that there is hope. After all, Dickens observed that “It is a fair, even-handed, noble adjustment of things, that while there is infection in disease and sorrow, there is nothing in the world so irresistibly contagious as laughter and good-humour.”

His work has also been heard at theme parks owned by Disney, Universal Studios and Paramount. He won the 1998 USITT Clear Com Sound Achievement Award and holds an MFA in Sound Design from CCM at the University of Cincinnati.

Dennis Castellano (Vocal Director) has musically directed the SCR productions of An Italian Straw Hat: A Vaudeville, A Little Night Music, A Christmas Carol, Happy End, Sunday in the Park with George and A Chorus of Disapproval. Recent credits include Cinderella and the American premiere of Twice Upon a Time for Civic Light Opera of South Bay Cities; Me and My Girl and A Chorus Line for The Music Theatre of Wichita; My Fair Lady, The Unsinkable Molly Brown, Guys and Dolls and Annie Get Your Gun for McCoy Rigby Entertainment; The King and I, A Funny Thing Happened On the Way to the Forum and Thoroughly Modern Millie for Musical Theatre West; L’Ibîmâr for the Musical Theatre Guild; and just this past summer conducted Sweeney Todd and Evita for the Sacramento Music Circus where he has conducted for the past 20 seasons. Mr. Castellano serves as the Head of the Music Theatre Program at UC Irvine and is very proud of his many students performing in New York and around the country.

Sylvia C. Turner (Choreographer) is an award-winning choreographer and educator who has been active in professional theatre, concert dance and arts organizations for many years. She has performed professionally in the United States and Japan, and has conducted dance research in Europe, West Africa and the Caribbean. Her work has been seen in more than 16 SCR productions, including Safe in Hell, Twelfth Night, The Cherry Orchard, The Birds with Culture Clash, Arcadia, Dancing at Lughnasa, and many Educational Touring Productions. Other credits include “The Lion King Parade and Street Show” at Disneyland, an animated film for the Luxor Hotel, Las Vegas, Bridge to Angel Island for Ballet Pacifica, and a collaborative work Bullwhip Days based on slave narratives, in addition to her many concert works. She choreographs for nationally competitive skaters, and has written on ice skating choreography for Dance Magazine. Ms. Turner adjudicates choreography, serves as a panelist for private and public arts granting agencies, and sits on state review boards in arts education. She is currently the Dean of Fine and Performing Arts at Santa Ana College.

Hisa Takakuwa* (Assistant Director) having appeared as an actor in A Christmas Carol for 14 seasons, now takes on the role of Assistant Director. After completing her professional training as an actor, Ms. Takakuwa appeared at SCR in The Man Who Came to Dinner and 13 Educational Touring Productions including the original production of Bad Water Blues. Other acting credits include 16 seasons as a resident artist with the classical repertory company A Noise Within, playing such roles as Masha in The Seagull, Maria in Twelfth Night and Emily in Our Town, and work at Indiana Repertory Theatre, Sundance Institute’s Children’s Theatre and Playwright’s Lab and Grove Shakespeare Festival. She is also an active director, having directed SCR’s Theatre Conservatory Players in Crow and Weasel, The Trials of Alice in Wonderland, Scouting Reality, East of the Sun and West of the Moon, Snow Angel, Time Again in Oz, Metamorphoses and Peter Pan. Other recent productions include Twelfth Night, Shooting Stars and Henry V at Actors Co-op in Hollywood. She also served as Assistant Director to Art Manke on SCR’s production of The Wind in the Willows and to Libby Appel on A Raisin in the Sun at the Indiana Repertory Theatre. A passionate educator, Ms. Takakuwa is currently the Director of SCR’s Theatre Conservatory. She holds a BA from Smith College and an MFA from the California Institute of the Arts.

JAMIE A. TUCKER* (Stage Manager) completed his MFA in Dance, specializing in Stage Management, at UC Irvine in 1994. Since coming to SCR, Mr. Tucker has stage managed or assisted on over 36 shows in addition to seven seasons of La Posada Mágica. This is Jamie’s rookie season on A Christmas Carol. Some of his favorites have been the world premieres of Richard Greenberg’s Three Days of Rain, The Violet Hour and A Naked Girl on the Appian Way; Rolin Jones’ The Intelligent Design of Jenny Chow; and Noah Haidle’s Mr. Marmalade. Other favorites include Anna in the Tropics, A View from the Bridge and Hamlet. If you can’t find him in the theatre, he is likely to be on the diamond or riding his bike down PCH. Mr. Tucker is a proud member of Actors’ Equity.

CRISSY CHURCH* (Assistant Stage Manager) is a proud five year veteran of SCR’s A Christmas Carol. She is thrilled to be returning to such a lovely cast and the hardest working crew in Orange County. Previous credits at SCR include the world premieres of Mr. Marmalade, Getting Frankie Married — and Afterwards, Making It and Nostalgia, productions of The Heiress, Taking Steps, What They Have, Charlotte’s Web, Doubt, a parable, My Wandering Bay, The Real Thing, Hitchcock Blonde, Born Yesterday, Pinocchio, The Little Prince, Intimate Exchanges, La Posada Mágica, Anna in the Tropics, Proof and the Pacific Playwrights Festival workshop of Tough Titty.

DAVID EMMES (Producing Artistic Director) is co-founder of SCR. He has received numerous awards for productions he has directed during his SCR career, including a Los Angeles Drama Critics Circle Award for the direction of George Bernard Shaw’s The Philanderer. He directed the world premieres of Amy Freed’s Safe in Hell, The Beard of Avon and Freedomland, Thomas Babe’s Great Day in the Morning, Keith Reddin’s Rum and Coke and But Not for Me and Neal Bell’s Cold Sweat; the American premieres of Terry Johnson’s Unsuitable for Adults and Joe Penhall’s Dumb Show; the West Coast premieres of C.P. Taylor’s Good and Harry Kondoleon’s Christmas on Mars; and the Southland premiere of Top Girls (at SCR and the Westwood Playhouse). Other productions include the West Coast premieres of Three Viewings by Jeffrey Hatcher, The Secret Rapture by David Hare and New England by Richard Nelson; and Arcadia by Tom Stoppard, The Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde, Ayckbourn’s Woman in Mind and You Never Can Tell by George Bernard Shaw, which he restaged for the Singapore Festival of Arts. He has served as a theatre panelist and onsite evaluator for the National Endowment for the Arts, on the Executive Committee. of the League of Resident Theatres, and as a panelist for the California Arts Council. After attending Orange Coast College, he received his BA and MA from San Francisco State University, and his PhD in theatre and film from USC.

Martin Benson (Artistic Director), co-founder of SCR with his colleague David Emmes, has directed nearly one third of the plays produced here. He has distinguished himself in the staging of contemporary work, including William Nicholson’s The Retreat from Moscow, the world premiere of Horton Foote’s Getting Frankie Married — and Afterwards and the critically acclaimed California premiere of Nicholson’s Shadowlands. He has won accolades for his direction of five major works by George Bernard Shaw, including the Los Angeles Drama Critics Circle (LADCC) Award-winners Major Barbara, Misalliance and Heartbreak House. Among his numerous world premieres is Margaret Edson’s Pulitzer Prize-winning Wit, which he also directed at Seattle Repertory Theatre and the Alley Theatre in Houston. He has directed American classics including Ab, Wilderness!, A Streetcar Named Desire, A Delicate Balance and A View from the Bridge. Benson has received the LADCC Distinguished Achievement in Directing awards an unparalleled seven times for the three Shaw productions. John Millington Synge’s Playboy of the Western World, Arthur Miller’s The Crucible, Sally Nemeth’s Holy Days and Wit. He also directed the film version of Holy Days using the original SCR cast. Along with Emmes, he accepted SCR’s 1988 Tony Award for Outstanding Resident Professional Theatre and won the 1995 Theatre LA Ovation Award for Lifetime Achievement. Benson received his BA in Theatre from San Francisco State University.

Paula Tomei (Managing Director) is responsible for the overall administration of South Coast Repertory and has been Managing Director since 1994. A member of the SCR staff since 1979, she has served in a number of administrative capacities including Subscriptions Manager, Business Manager and General Manager. She served on the board of Theatre Communications Group (TCG), the national service organization for theatre, from 1998-2006, and was its President for four years. She has also served as Treasurer of TCG, Vice President of the League of Resident Theatres (LORT) and has been a member of the LORT Negotiating Committee for industry-wide union agreements. In addition, she represents SCR at national conferences of TCG and LORT; has been a theatre panelist for the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) and the California Arts Council, and site visitor for the NEA; served on the Advisory Committee for the Arts Administration Certificate Program at the University of California, Irvine; and has been a guest lecturer in the graduate school of business at Stanford and the University of California, Irvine. She recently joined the board of Arts Orange County, the county wide arts council. Ms. Tomei graduated from the University of California, Irvine with a degree in Economics and pursued an additional course of study in theatre and dance.

South Coast Repertory, founded in 1964 and continuing today under the leadership of Artistic Directors David Emmes and Martin Benson, is widely regarded as one of America’s foremost producers of new plays. In its three-stage Folino Theatre Center in Costa Mesa, California, SCR produces a five-play season on its Segerstrom Stage, a four-play season on its Argyros Stage, plus two annual holiday productions. SCR also offers a three-play Theatre for Young Audiences series, and year-round programs in education and outreach. SCR’s extensive new play development program consists of commissions, residencies, readings, and workshops, from which up to five world premieres are produced each season. Among the plays commissioned and introduced at SCR are Donald Margulies’ Sight Unseen, Collected Stories and Brooklyn Boy, Richard Greenberg’s Three Days of Rain, Everett Beekin, Hurrah at Last and The Violet Hour, David Henry Hwang’s Golden Child, Jose Rivera’s References to Salvador Dali Make Me Hot, Lynn Nottage’s Intimate Apparel, Craig Lucas’ Prelude to a Kiss, Amy Freed’s The Beard of Avon and Freedomland, Margaret Edson’s Pulitzer Prize-winning Wit and David Lindsay-Abaire’s Pulitzer Prize-winning Rabbit Hole. Most of these plays were developed through its Pacific Playwrights Festival, an annual workshop and reading showcase for up to eight new plays, attended by artistic directors and literary staff members from across the country. Over forty percent of the plays SCR has produced have been world, American or West Coast premieres. In 1988, SCR received the Regional Theatre Tony Award for Distinguished Achievement, particularly in the area of new play development.
