in the late fall of 1843, the 31-year-old author of Oliver Twist and The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby began writing a story to be published during the Christmas season of that year. Charles Dickens had four children and a wife to provide for, flagging sales and decreasing interest in his latest work, and was in need of a career jump-start.

At this time, some privileged English families still celebrated Christmas with feasts, pageants and revelry. But England’s working class—about 85 percent of the population—could not. For many people in Dickens’ London, December was a time of hardship, not celebration.

In October 1843, moved to action by a Parliamentary report on the plight of children laboring in mines and factories, Dickens visited a copper mine. Appalled by what he saw there, Dickens began to develop ideas for his next story—a story that would, in the author’s words, “strike a sledgehammer blow on behalf of the poor man's child.” He titled the piece The Sledgehammer; more than 150 years later, it’s the story known to the world as A Christmas Carol.

Dickens wrote A Christmas Carol in just six weeks. He told friends that the Cratchits were “ever tugging at his coat sleeve, as if impatient for him to get back to his desk and continue the story of their lives.” A Christmas Carol, like many of Dickens’ other works, has autobiographical elements woven throughout. Like Peter Cratchit, Dickens was the eldest of six children. His own frail, sickly youngest brother called “Tiny Fred.” Dickens’ spendthrift father, John, caused the family—save 12-year-old Charles—to relocate to debtors’ prison for a time. Charles worked in a factory during this time and never forgot the experience.

Though he certainly must have hoped for career rejuvenation, Dickens could hardly have imagined that the quickly written story would become beloved by so many. In 1857, A Christmas Carol became the first of Dickens’ works that he performed publicly and was, in 1868, the last. He preferred to act the story for the audience, adapting his presentation as he went along. The Manchester Examiner reported, “There is always a freshness about what Mr. Dickens does—one reading is never anything like a mechanical following of a previous reading.”

In 1867 and 1868, Dickens put on a blockbuster Christmas Carol tour of the United States, turning a profit of $140,000—nearly $2-million dollars today. President Andrew Johnson took his family to every performance in Washington, D.C., and theatregoers camped overnight in the streets to purchase tickets the next morning.

A Christmas Carol has been translated for readers all over the world and adapted into dozens of stage productions, films and even an opera. Though he could not have anticipated, during that fall of 1843, how successful his novella would prove to be, Dickens would surely be very happy that his story of the virtues of goodwill and generosity continues to reach millions of people every year.

“Dickens was a mythologist rather than a novelist; he was the last of the mythologists, and perhaps the greatest.”
—G.K. Chesterton

That the original “meaning” of Christmas has been lost is a common complaint. Those voicing it are usually referring to the celebration of the birth of Christ. In fact, Christmas customs have much less to do with the Nativity than with midwinter pagan agricultural and solar observances dating centuries before Jesus Christ’s birth. The Roman world, into which Christ was born, celebrated the Festival of Saturn from Dec. 17-24, a week of parties and exchanging of gifts. The fact that Christmas was celebrated at the time of the winter solstice (Dec. 22, the day on which the sun is at its greatest distance south of the equator—hence, the shortest day of the year for the northern hemisphere) connected it with festivals for the unconquered sun. Houses were decorated with greenery and lights, and presents were given to children and the poor.

Germanic and Celtic Yule customs worked their way into Christmas traditions as well. Special foods and feasts, fellowship, the Yule log and Yule cakes, Wassailing, greenery and fir trees all commemorated different aspects of the season. Two things were common to all European midwinter festivals in earlier times. Fires and lights, symbols of warmth and the endurance of life, were a part of both pagan and Judeo-Christian celebrations. Evergreens, as symbols of survival, had particular meaning for Northern Europeans who faced extremely harsh, long winters. An evergreen tree placed indoors at Christmas was a reminder that the suffering of winter would be followed by seasons of rebirth and fullness in the coming spring and summer.

This experience is difficult to appreciate in the dry, temperate Southern California climate, where Yule trees stand more often as fire hazards than reminders of spring. But winter for much of the world is a season of dormancy and death in nature; and, in earlier centuries, it was even more a time of frailty fatal to human beings.

Charles Dickens’ recognition of human mortality pervades A Christmas Carol. The deaths of Marley and Fan, the Ghosts and the possible passing of Tiny Tim, as well as the suffering of the poor and the Cratchits’ lean Christmas are shadows to be dispelled by the light of human love and the season’s spirit.

More than a century later, Octavio Solis, in his La Posada Mágica, found similar substance in the predicament of his young and reluctant heroine, Gracie. The transforming power of love that Dickens found in 19th-century London remained constant in Solis’ south-western barrio at the beginning of the 21st.

The value of love and human life is measured by the fact that it doesn’t last forever. It is the equation Scrooge comes to know, and one which Dickens fully appreciated.

SCR Theatre
Conservatory Students Shine on Stage

In today’s performance of A Christmas Carol, you’ll see young actors in the roles of Martha, Belinda, Peter and “Tiny” Tim Cratchit. And Turkey Boy. And the specters of “Want” and “Ignorance.” And the young people among the partygoers. All of them are students in SCR’s Theatre Conservatory who earned the roles through hard work, talent and the growth and promise they have shown in their classes.

“The students selected for A Christmas Carol show maturity, focus, confidence and an overall readiness to take on this exciting challenge. It’s a thrill for us to provide young actors this singular opportunity to perform and learn next to professional artists in this beloved classic,” says Hisa Takakuwa, conservatory director, who portrayed Sally and Toy Lady in A Christmas Carol for 14 years and has been assistant director for more than a dozen years. “Each year’s cast of 16 young actors brings a new life and energy to this wonderful show.”

Nearly 60 conservatory students, between the ages of 8 and 18, audition for the annual holiday classic. They must have at least two years of conservatory training, show strength in their class work and have the recommendation of their teacher.

“Conservatory acting classes guide students toward understanding the artistic process, discovering their creativity and building their ability to work confidently with others,” explains Takakuwa. “Our students learn through their work in this production and when they resume classes, we see how much they have grown as artists.”

“A Christmas Carol” Experience Leaves Lasting Impact

We asked Theatre Conservatory students from past productions of SCR’s A Christmas Carol what made the experience special for them.

“All the other actors shared my enthusiasm for acting. I also loved being in a professional play and having to work really hard because it was fun to work hard. I also enjoyed performing in front of a lot of people.”
—Carissa Diller (Belinda Cratchit, 2015)

“A Christmas Carol was integral to my growth as an artist and in my education. I learned that dedication requires stamina; that being present requires focus; and commitment to your fellow artists requires commitment to your choices. This experience shaped me and I am so grateful for that.”
—Sanaz Toossi (Martha Cratchit, 2008)

“A Christmas Carol was my first professional stage experience and it helped me gain insight into the entire production process, which inspired me to pursue a BA in theatre from UCSD. Today, I am a K-8 educator and theatre artist—I even worked as the child assistant for the 2015 season of A Christmas Carol—and I would argue that the experience of working on this production was one of the most impactful moments of my training in the Theatre Conservatory’s Kids and Teen Program, as well as my academic career.”
—Brianna Beach (Martha Cratchit, 2007, and Fan, 2008)

“A Christmas Carol was a portal into the world of the professional actor. While I got the chance to explore my craft with sage adult actors, I also developed crucial leadership skills among the younger actors.”
—Christopher Huntley (Boy Scrooge, 2008, and Peter Cratchit, 2011)

Malcolm Kushner relates the story of a man who chaired the charity committee of his local hospital. He reviewed all the fund-raising records and he discovered that the richest person in town had never made a donation. So he went to visit him. He said, “Our records show that you’re the richest person in town, but you’ve never contributed to the hospital.” And the rich man said, “Do your records also show that my widowed mother was left absolutely destitute? Do they show that my brother is totally disabled? Do they show that my sister was abandoned with four young children?” By now the chairperson felt really ashamed. The rich man ended, “Well, I don’t do anything for them, so why should I do anything for you?”

Honorary Producer

Julianne & George Argyros have been leading supporters of South Coast Repertory since its earliest days. Highlights of their generosity include major contributions to the Next Stage Campaign, leading to the naming of the Julianne Argyros Stage, and to the Legacy Campaign to build the theatre’s endowment. Julianne is an Honorary Trustee and, in 2013, served as Honorary Chair of SCR’s legendary 50th Season Gala, Theatrical Gold. The couple are also longstanding underwriters of A Christmas Carol. Speaking of the show, Julianne comments: “This holiday classic is our family’s favorite tradition and every year it continues to delight and amaze young and old alike." SCR is deeply grateful to the Argyros Family for their extraordinary commitment to our theatre and the community.

Last spring, Schindele returned to Jewel Theatre Company to reprise her role of Cecily Pigeon in The Odd Couple. A career highlight has been an opportunity to play Stella Kowalski, alongside her real-life husband, in the iconic A Streetcar Named Desire. Her other theatre credits include the West Coast premiere of I’m Still Getting My Act Together (starring Gretchen Cryer) at Laguna Playhouse, as well as The Odd Couple and Love, Loss and What I Wore; Collected Stories at Coachella Valley Repertory Theatre (Desert Theatre League nominee, best actress); Merrily We Roll Along and 1776 at Actors Co-op; Hello Dolly! at Welk Resort Theatre; A Christmas Carol at Sierra Madre Playhouse and Glendale Center Theatre; and Out of This World with Musical Theatre Guild. She recently shot a lead role in Emerald and The What If. Her television appearances include “Criminal Minds” and “American Dreams.” For my loving husband, Brent, “Not a Day Goes By…” erikaschindele.com.

Kimberly Scott
Solicitor/Mrs. Fezziwig/Scavenger

last appeared at SCR in the 2016 production of A Christmas Carol and previously in the Pacific Playwright Festival reading of Rachel Bonds’ play, Curve of Departure. She also appeared in The Further Adventures of Hedda Gabler by Jeff Whitty on the Julianne Argyros Stage and in Our Town on the Segerstrom Stage. Her theatre credits include Sweat by Lynn Nottage (Arena Stage), Head of Passes by Tarell Alvin McCraney (Berkeley Repertory Theatre) and the world premiere of Familiar by Danai Gurira (Yale Repertory Theater). She spent eight seasons at Oregon Shakespeare Festival with roles in Henry V, Henry IV Parts 1 & 2, Ruined, As You Like It, The Further Adventures of Hedda Gabler and The Pirates of Penzance and created the roles of Dembi in The Liquid Plain by Naomi Wallace, Amira in Party People by UNIVERSES, Viola Pettus in American Night by Culture Clash, as well as Cynthia in Sweat—all world premieres. Scott also created the role of Molly in Joe Turner’s Come and Gone by August Wilson. In that role on Broadway, she was nominated for the Tony and Drama Desk awards. Scott’s screen credits include the films Love and Other Drugs, World Trade Center and The Abyss, as well as many television appearances.

Playwright, Director and Designers

Jerry Patch (Adaptor) was affiliated with SCR from 1967-2005 and returned in 2014 as literary consultant. He served as dramaturg on nearly 150 new plays developed and seen at SCR including the world premieres of Abundance, Freedomland, Golden Child, Intimate Apparel, Search and Destroy, Three Days of Rain and Wit. He was project director for the Pacific Playwrights Festival from its 1998 inception through 2005; and, for seven years, he served as artistic director of the theatre program of Sundance Institute. As a professor of theatre and film, he taught at Long Beach City College, UC-Irvine, UC-San Diego, CSU-Long Beach and other institutions. He was consulting dramaturg for New York’s Roundabout Theatre Company for nearly a decade and left SCR to become resident artistic director for The Old Globe in San Diego. He is an artistic consultant, following seven seasons as director of artistic development, for Manhattan Theatre Club in New York, for MTC and South Coast Repertory.

John-David Keller (Director) has been a member of SCR’s resident acting company since 1973 as both an actor and director. He has directed A Christmas Carol for its entire 39-year history. Among his other SCR directing credits are Godspell, Jacques Brel Is Alive and Well and Living in Paris, In Fashion, The Real Inspector Hound (SCR’s first Equity show), Peg O’ My Heart and Tomfoolery. From 1975 through 2007, he directed all of SCR’s Educational Touring Productions, which were presented in elementary schools throughout Orange County. He also acted in more than 100 productions at SCR including, most recently, Amadeus and One Man, Two Guvnors. He appeared in the production of Anton Chekov’s Ivanov at the Odyssey Theatre in Los Angeles and in Mrs. Warren’s Profession at Antaeus Theatre Company. Keller recently celebrated his 26th year as the concert host for the Orange County Philharmonic Society’s fifth-grade concerts. He is a member of Actors’ Equity, Stage Directors and Choreographers Society and Antaeus Theatre Company.

DONNA & TOM RZUKA (Lighting Design) celebrate their 39th year of designing for A Christmas Carol and 46 years of marriage. They have enjoyed collaborating on productions at SCR, the Hollywood Bowl and other regional theatres. Ms. Ruzika has designed productions at Utah Shakespeare Festival, Kansas City Repertory, Alabama Shakespeare Festival, Laguna Playhouse, The Colony Theatre, Fullerton Civic Light Opera, Pasadena Playhouse and Long Beach’s International City Theatre. Her work has also been seen in Cairo, Egypt, Bogotá, Colombia, and Barcelona, Spain. Mr. Ruzika’s designs have been seen on Broadway, in national tours, at major regional theatres, and with many national and international dance and opera companies. His entertainment lighting can be seen at theme parks in six countries and his architectural lighting can be seen in prestigious hotels, casinos, restaurants, retail centers and performing arts centers across the nation and in Europe and Asia. The Ruzikas have received numerous awards for their contributions to the art and craft of lighting design.

DENNIS McCARTHY (Musical Arrangement/Composer) returns to SCR, where he previously composed music for An Italian Straw Hat, Getting Frankie Married—and Afterwards, Ben and the Magic Paintbrush, The Beard of Avon, Much Ado about Nothing and Of Mice and Men. During his career, he has written music for more than 2,000 films, television movies and series episodes including “V,” “MacGyver,” “Parker Lewis Can’t Lose,” “Star Trek,” “Dawson’s Creek” and “Dynasty.” He won two Emmy Awards during his 18 years of music for “Star Trek” and composed the music for the series’ feature film, Generations. He was honored with ASCAP’s “Golden Note” award. He teaches film scoring at the Art Center of Design in Pasadena, is a Southern California native, a father of three and proud grandfather of nine beautiful grandchildren.

REMEMBERING DWIGHT RICHARD ODEL

Detail. Texture. Depth. Richness. Those words can describe the work of costume designer Dwight Richard Odle, who created the original costumes for SCR’s iconic show, A Christmas Carol and passed away over the summer. But he didn’t stop at just designing the production’s original costumes—he kept deepening aspects of each character and design and, through the years, made creative adjustments to the costumes and wigs in the show.

Richard’s legacy rests not only through his work on A Christmas Carol, but also in the costumes he designed for nearly three-dozen other SCR productions. He also did set and costume design work at other venues including Laguna Playhouse, the Sundance Institute and Universal Studios and, as an event designer, his projects spanned an incredible range including a Rose Bowl Parade, Super Bowl halftime show and Pope John Paul’s 1987 Mass at Dodger Stadium. Richard inspired future generations of designers through his tenure on the theatre faculty at California State University, Fullerton (which held a remembrance of his life in the fall). While we are saddened by his passing, his artistry lives on in A Christmas Carol.
Takakuwa is SCR's Theatre Conservatory and educational director. She received her BA from Smith College. Her other productions include The Wind in the Willows and Twelfth Night and Beast. Julie Ann Renfro (Assistant Stage Manager) is happy to back for her seventh year of A Christmas Carol after recently touring with A Night With Janis Joplin. She has been a part of the stage management team at SCR for nine seasons, on more than 25 productions. Some of her favorites include The Parisian Woman, The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane and The Light Princess. Her other credits include Geffen Playhouse, LA Opera, Ojai Playwrights Conference, Pasadena Playhouse, Laguna Playhouse, Sydney Independent Theatre Company, Long Beach Shakespeare Company and American Coast Theatre Company. She holds a BA in theatre arts from Vanguard University. Renfro is a proud member of Actors’ Equity Association.

Paula Tomei (Managing Director) is responsible for the overall administration of SCR. She has been managing director since 1994 and a member of SCR’s staff since 1979. She is a past president of the board of Theatre Communications Group (TCG), the national service organization for theatre. In addition, she served as treasurer of TCG, vice president of the League of Resident Theatres (LORT) and as a member of the LORT Negotiating Committee for industry-wide union agreements. She represents SCR at national conferences of TCG and LORT and served as a theatre panelist and site visitor for the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) and the California Arts Council. Her teaching background includes a graduate class in non profit management at UC Irvine (UCI) and as a guest lecturer in the graduate school of business at Stanford. She was appointed by the chancellor to UCI’s Community Arts Council, serves on the Dean’s Leadership Society Executive Committee for the School of Social Sciences at UCI and on One OC’s Nonprofit Advisory Council. She is also on the board of Arts Orange County, the county-wide arts council, and the board of the Nicholas Endowment. She graduated from UCI with a degree in economics and pursued an additional course of study in theatre and dance. In March 2017, she received the Mayor’s Award from the City of Costa Mesa for her contributions to the arts community. In October 2018, she received the Helena Modjeska Cultural Legacy Award for Lifetime Achievement in the Arts.

MARTIN BENSON (Founding Artistic Director), co-founder of SCR, has directed nearly one-fourth of SCR’s productions. In 2008, he and David Emmes received the Margo Jones Award for their lifetime commitment to theatre excellence and fostering the art and craft of American playwriting. They also accepted SCR’s 1988 Tony Award for Outstanding Resident Professional Theatre and won the 1995 Theatre LA Ovation Award for Lifetime Achievement. Benson has received the Los Angeles Drama Critics Circle Award for Distinguished Achievement in Directing an unparalleled seven times for George Bernard Shaw’s Major Barbara, Misalliance and Heartbreak House; John Millington Synge’s Playboy of the Western World; Arthur Miller’s The Crucible; Sally Nemeth’s Holy Days; and the world premiere of Margaret Edson’s Pulitzer Prize-winning Wit, which he also directed at Seattle Repertory Theatre and Houston’s Alley Theatre. Nick Summer is thrilled to be making his return to A Christmas Carol for the third time. He is a graduate of the SCR’s Acting Intensive Program and American Academy of Dramatic Arts and a company member of the Modjeska Unscripted Theater in Lake Forest. He is also a series regular on the popular web series “Life as a Mermaid.” His favorite roles include Boy in Peter and the Star Catcher, Johnny Appleseed in the world premiere of American Tall Tales and Matt in Dog Sees God. Slimmer would like to thank his parents for their support, Joanne DeNaut for giving him opportunities, and his girlfriend, Emily, for her love.

Aaron McGee

Puppet Show/Mr. Topper

is happy to return to the Segerstrom Stage for the magic of A Christmas Carol. He first appeared in Christmas Carol—after completing SCR’s Acting Intensive Program—two years ago playing the role of the disheveled Thomas Shelley as well as Party Guests. He then found his way into the production of Shakespeare in Love last season, playing multiple roles including an Elizabethan actor. His other credits include Wilbur in Charlotte’s Web and Captain Swain and other characters in By the Great Horn Spoon at Laguna Playhouse for its touring company.

Monika Peña

Elizabeth Shelley/Pursued Maiden/Fan

is making her SCR debut. She is a Chance Theatre resident artist where she appeared in the titular role in Violet; as the butt-kicking, Princess Fish in Claudio Quest (West Coast premiere); Josephine in Big Fish, The Eight: Reindeer Monologues (Dancer); Fancy Nancy: the Musical (Rhonda; 2016-18); A Chorus Line (LA Times Critic’s Choice); Dogfight (LA/OC premieres), Hairspray and In the Heights (Ovation Recommended, regional premiere). She is a Cal Poly Pomona zoology alumna.

Austin Springer

Constable/Jacob Marley as a Young Man/The Spirit of Christmas Yet-to-Come/Poulterer

is delighted to return to A Christmas Carol. He recently appeared in A Soldier’s Play at Sacred Fools, and Key Exchange at Playhouse West. Also, this past year he flew to China to star in the film Laoban, which will be making its international premiere this Spring. His previous credits include Orlando from As You Like It and Ken from Rumors. Before coming to SCR, Springer graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. He has appeared in A Christmas Carol twice before and is a graduate of SCR’s Acting Intensive Program.
