ABOUT THE POSITION

SCR seeks an experienced Scenic Charge Artist to oversee operations of our Paint Shop for the productions of APPROPRIATE and THE LITTLE FOXES. These productions are being presented in rep on the same unit set with added elements for each. This role is essential to leading and motivating a diverse team of scenic artists throughout the design execution process. This position is a temporary contract with the option to extend or become full-time after the contract ends.

ABOUT THE ROLE

- Lead and motivate the scenic art team through completion of painting projects.
- Collaborate and communicate with the scenic designer.
- Interpret scenic design drawings and create plans for how to fulfill designers' concepts within scenic budget.
- Execute and instruct scenic team on best practices for achieving needed scenic treatments using various materials and methods.
- Maintain regular communication of project progress and budget statuses to Production Management and designers.
- Transport and coordinate transport of paint and materials to/from Paint Shop and the Theater space as needed.
- Collaborate with other Production departments on scheduling, shared spaces, and other needs.
- Attend and participate in all Production Meetings and relay design information to the scenic artists.
- Attend technical rehearsals and note sessions as requested by the Production Manager.
- Uphold the policies and procedures outlined in SCR's Health and Safety Manual, including adherence to all PPE and safety protocols.

ABOUT THE PERSON

Qualities and skills that best serve a Scenic Charge Artist may be:

- A minimum of three years professional/academic scenic painting experience
- Proven leadership abilities and an interest in sharing skills and knowledge with a diverse team
- Demonstrated skills in scenic art techniques and an understanding of standard paint tools and sprayers
- Strong attention to detail while on tight deadlines
- Dedication to workplace safety
- Weekend or evening availability occasionally required
- Reliable transportation and a valid driver's license are highly desired
- Commitment to equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging and enthusiasm to nurture an anti-racist work culture

WORKING CONDITION

Regular tasks of this position may include:

- Standing for 4-6 hours at a time
- Regularly crouching, reaching, crawling, and kneeling
- Pushing, pulling, & lifting 50-70lbs alone or with assistance
- Comfortability working at moderate heights (ladders, lifts, scaffolding)
